NEWS ABOUT TOWN

By T. P. Felder

Where were you Saturday night? A bunch of us kids went over to the B. C. T. S. campus and had a real noisy session at the Harvest Carnival given by Mr. Perry A. Smith and several of his Sir Knight brothers. There were hamburgers, hot dogs, spider web maizes, fortune telling, and just oodles of fun making carnival stunts. There were a few grown-ups but they let us kids have the carnival and we sure had our share of fun.

Well the girls are not the only travelers around here. Clarence Smith went to Chicago and Wilbur Pettit went to Memphis.

Pal Stringer motored to Chicago with the Booze family last week.

The Memphis Excursions always carry their number from Mound Bayou. Last Sunday Mrs. A. Pettitt, Wilbur, Nellie D. Broomfield, Annie B. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, Mrs. R. A. Scott, Mrs. Gertrude Stringer, Misses Mary Slate and Gertrude Terrel were among the Mound Bayou passengers.

Mrs. M. E. Davis is at home after a lengthy stay with R. B.

in Chicago. She reports that R. B. is improving splendidly.

The Usher Board of the First Baptist sponsored a storm for their pastor Rev. A. D. Purnell Friday night, led on by Mrs. R. A. Scott, the treasurer. The donors were: Mesdames Charlotte Truey, butter beans and fruit; R. A. Scott soda, matches and tomato paste; R. Jones flour and meal; Leola Benson lard; E. Britton meal and fruit; Annie Jones flour; P. A. Smith M. H. Coffee and 3 cans of milk; P. J. Smith sugar; C. F. Bolton sugar, Alice Bolton 3 bars of soap; M. Cohn salt and soap; Elnora Cage sugar and pickle; Alice Cooper sugar; Lucile Hibbler sugar; J. M. Brown sugar and macaroni; Altie Crowe potatoes and fruit; Ellen Benson flour; Nelson tomatoes; E. Thompson meal; Viola Slate jar of beans; G. Stringer jar beans, jar pears and a jar of jelly; L. George sugar; Sara Gray jar fruit; Ollie Lockett jar fruit; Lucy Howell beans; Ruth Ishmon spaghetti and tomatoes; H. Cook soap; Alice Hargrove baking powder; Porter flowers;

Pearl matches; M. E. Edwards rice; Disker Johnson sugar; Mary Bedford rice; Easter Brown meal; A. R. Pressley sugar and salmon; E. Peterson peaches; Irene Ishmon corn, beans and soda; Katie Ailes grits; Messrs. J. G. Gordon peanuts; Galloway meal; Motley can of tomato paste and Mitchell can of salmon. Mrs. Charlotte Truey, President and Mrs. Leola Benson, Secretary.

Guess I'll give the force chance to catch up with me since they are short of help at the office. You kind folk who gave me your news last week and did not see it in the paper blame it on the type-setter. I sent it in O. K. already deciphered.

T. P. F. your N. A. T. reporter.
